Art Unit: 1771

1. The Examiner suggests that in line 2 of each of claims 9 and 19 change "and this gives" to --giving--.
2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 8-10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Pfaff et al. The reference discloses (note particularly the Abstract, Col 1, line 60-Col 2, line 6, lines 48-52, lines 57-60, Col 3, lines 3-13, Example 1, claims 1 and 2) a metallized nonwoven backing wherein the metal utilized is preferably silver that can be coated onto both sides of the backing fibers along with a suitable acrylic adhesive layer, thereby making the resulting color of the tape inherently silverish, or alternatively a minor optimization thereof for one of ordinary skill. The metallized silver coating (note that this is believed to encompass such known techniques as vapor deposition as well as coating) can be applied such as by coating (Col 3, lines 8-10), and it is further believed that acrylic pressure sensitive adhesives are inherently transparent (claim 13), or alternatively can be so modified to be transparent if desired.

Art Unit: 1771

5. Claims 8-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either machine translations of the Abstract, Claims and Detailed Descriptions of either JP 2002-249741 or JP 10-152658. The references disclose (note particularly JP '741, the Abstract, the Figure, Paragraphs 0001, 0009, 0011, 0013, 0014, 0016, 0020, 0021; JP '658, the Abstract, Claim 1, Paragraphs 0001, 0005, 0008, 0009) genuses of double sided (JP'741) or single sided (JP '658) adhesive tapes which are suitable for use in the LCD and related arts, wherein the tapes can have suitable acrylic based adhesive compositions which may contain a suitable colorant or (JP '658) "reflector" material which can produce any desired coloring effect wanted, such as silver ([0008], JP '658), which is substantially all that the claims require. Additionally, such parameters as the presence of heat activated psa's, and the use of different metallization techniques such as vapor deposition and the like are each believed to be obvious modifications to one of ordinary skill, in the absence of unexpected results.

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note also EP 1 211 298 A2, cited by applicant, and Akhter.
